CITY NOTES.

Tribune readers leaving for their summer's vacation can have their favorite paper sent to them without extra cost, by notifying this office of the desired change in the paper's address.

Eliza Zing, Mary Schick and Nicholas Kleber were yesterday released from the custody of the sheriff under the insolvency laws.

William Walker, of Mayfield, and J. D. Stocker, of Jersey, deny that they represented any syndicate in the recent negotiations for the sale of the Carbondale electric road.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to John McDonough and Barbara Nally, of Carbondale; Joseph Venable and Annie Venable, of Jersey; and John Grey and Maggie Arndt, of Old Forge.

The Green Ridge Presbyterian church Sunday school will run an excursion to Lake Ariel Monday, Aug. 6. Train leaves the Erie and Wyoming depot at 8:30 a. m., stopping at New York street. Tickets, adults 70 cents, children 35 cents.

But two members of the paving committee of common council, Messrs. Golden and Began, were present at last night's committee meeting, but they attached approving signatures to the West Lackawanna avenue paving ordinance and another will sign the measure before the meeting of next week. The Pine street paving petition was discussed but no action was taken, the entire line will be except the block between Jefferson and Madison avenues, where provision is made for Belgian stone block.

Open All Night at Lohman's Spruce street.

REGIMENTAL DRILL

Took Place Last Night at Washington Avenue and Vine Street.

Companies A, B, C and D divided into two battalions in command of Majors Mattes and Whitney participated in a practice drill and inspection by Colonel Rippe last evening on the new high school lot at Vine street and Washington avenue.

Companies B and A were divided into four companies and composed the first battalion, and Companies C and D similarly apportioned, made the second battalion. The only review evolutions were the formation for inspection and the passing in review, otherwise the drill was confined to loading, firing and marching. The return march to the army was conducted through a number of streets and avenues of the business district.

Excursion to Mountain Park.

The Taylor Methodist Episcopal church congregation will run an excursion to Mountain park on Friday, the train leaving the Central depot at 8:30 a. m. The outlook is favorable for a large crowd.

THE MASONIC REUNION

Members of the Fraternity with Wives and Children Picnic at Farview.

PERFECT DAY ON THE MOUNTAIN

Train Loads of Excursionists from Scranton and Walton, N. Y., Gather at the Park and Enjoy Wayne County Ozone-Delightful Scenery, Excellent Music, Eloquent Orations and Terpsichorean Sports the Features of the Event—Large Attendance and General Good Time.

Members of the Masonic fraternity of the Lackawanna valley and their wives and sweethearts enjoyed a pleasurable outing yesterday on the occasion of the first annual reunion of the masons between Honesdale and Wilkes-Barre, which was held at Farview in conjunction with the masons of Eastern New York, who came under auspices of Walton lodge.

The excursion train left the new Delaware and Hudson station at 9 o'clock a. m., and was quite well filled with passengers armed with lunch baskets and other equipments of the picnic season.

The Scranton excursion party was in charge of a committee from Green Ridge lodge, No. 507, composed of the following: R. A. Zimmerman, president; C. S. Seaman, treasurer; W. L. Carr, secretary; and John U. Hopewell, E. E. Deal, E. B. Franklin, T. Filicoff, George M. Watson, D. J. Newman, F. L. Phillip, J. W. Garney, Jr., T. R. Hughes, H. M. Cole, H. W. Hull, B. T. Jayne and Dr. Arndt, who had all arrangements for the entertainment of the excursionists perfected with care.

The train was additionally burdened with passengers from the stations between Scranton and Carbondale, and when the Pioneer City was reached, it carried about 300 excursionists. The Carbondale Masons and their families came en masse on the platform at the Delaware and Hudson station in that city and re-informed the pilgrims to a marked extent, as the pleasure seekers boarded the open cars on the gravity.

OVER THE MOUNTAINS.

As the sections of the train climbed the planes, whose tracks were fringed with foliage, and the invigorating mountain breezes, swept through leafy branches of the forest, the spirits of the excursionists became correspondingly exhilarated, and a jollier party probably never visited Farview than the happy throng that alighted from the long train on the picnic ground at 10:30.

The visitors scattered about the spacious park with lunch baskets and many were soon discussing the good things in store while others tripped in the dance to excellent music furnished by the Mozart orchestra, of Carbondale, that accompanied the excursion.

The New York visitors arrived via Carbondale at 11:30 and the party included about 250 ladies and gentlemen. The New York excursion was in charge of Walton lodge. They were welcomed by Mr. Filicoff, of the Ontario and Western, and others of the entertainment committee, and with the other pleasure seekers passed an enjoyable day until 5:30, the hour of their departure.

Honesdale and the other Wayne county towns along the line of the Gravity road were well represented on the grounds.

Among the prominent Scrantonians and political candidates present were: Hon. John H. Fellows, George Okell, Prothonotary, Pryor, H. H. Halstead, William Frantz, J. Elliot Ross, United States Commissioner A. J. Colburn, Jr., Dolph Atherton, secretary of the board of trade; Alex. Simpson, W. K. Beck, of Moscow; W. R. Holmes, John Thomas.

ARRANGEMENTS AT THE GROUNDS.

At the picnic grounds careful preparations had been made for the comfort and enjoyment of guests. Large barrels of ice water were situated at convenient points and ample accommodation in the way of lunch counters was found, where those not provided with baskets could procure the necessities of good quality at reasonable rates.

The day was passed quietly after the manner of the Sunday school picnic, and though every facility was offered there were few amusements save dancing and throwing balls at a flight of "Susie," which enabled the ambitious person who was successful enough to hit one of the dolls an opportunity to make a very bad score free of charge. In most instances it appeared easier to hit the mark with a base ball than to derive enjoyment from the cigar.

At 2 o'clock the majority of excursionists gathered near the main pavilion and listened to an address by Right Worshipful District Grand Master C. W. Wickwires, of Walton.

Out of door sports were broken up by rain later in the afternoon, but there was ample shelter upon the grounds for all until train time.

Many of the New York visitors during the day visited Honesdale and were delighted with the beautiful scenery along the gravity line and expressed themselves as well pleased with the day's outing. The excursion train arrived in this city on its return at 7 o'clock last evening.

MAY BECOME AN ANNUAL AFFAIR.

The New York Masons have held annual reunions for several years past, but yesterday's event was the first of the kind ever held by Lackawanna masons. The enjoyable features, however, will probably stimulate Masonic brethren to other enterprises of that nature and annual gatherings of the fraternity and their friends will doubtless be among the pleasant recurring events of the outing season.

WILL TRY BLOCK SYSTEM.

Scranton Traction Company to Test Its Efficiency.

The Scranton Traction company will soon inaugurate a test of the block signal system on four switches of the Providence line, and if the preliminary trial is satisfactory, the entire line will be equipped for final test. Several weeks ago a system of automatic signals was tried, but proved unsatisfactory.

The block system consists of a red and white light at each signal switch, and is operated by hand from one point to another. A conductor of an upward bound car will turn a lever from the signal box which will display a red light at the next switch beyond, thus stopping any inward bound car from leaving that point. If the motor man of an upward bound car should see a white light displayed he would know that a car was coming from the switch beyond and would wait until it had passed before proceeding.

The trial will probably be started within the next ten days, the signal

ROARING BROOK BRIDGE

The Ordinance Passes Final Reading in Select Council.

SOLICITOR TORREY ON CITY WORK

A Terse Opinion on the Employment of Citizens Only in the Construction of the Bridges—Mr. Manley Moves for a Public Bathing Place at Nay Aug Park—The Question of Grades.

The Roaring Brook bridge ordinance with plans attached was called up on third and final reading at the regular meeting of select council last evening and unanimously passed. The passage of this ordinance has been delayed about three months, owing to the fact that the plans did not accompany it. Now that they do accompany it, not a councilman looked at them. The ordinance was not even opened, the clerk reading it from a duplicate copy. Mr. McCann asked whether or not the consulting engineer that had been provided for by a previous ordinance had approved of the plans. Mr. Roche answered his inquiry by stating that the consulting engineer had not been selected as yet, but that the intention was that he be chosen after the ordinance had passed select council, and if he had any changes to make in the plans the ordinance could be amended in common council and referred back to the select for concurrence.

DOCTOR IS AROUSED.

Proposes to Make It Interesting for the Elmira Budget and Bartender George Kerl.

Dr. Haggerty evidently does not take kindly to the notoriety he was given in connection with the pool shop cases for he, yesterday, caused the arrest of several of the parties who were instrumental in giving him this notoriety.

George Kerl, who had the doctor arrested in connection with running a bucket-shop, was yesterday arrested at the instance of Doctor Haggerty, on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. Kerr is a bartender at the Conway House. The doctor also had John Niland, correspondent of the Elmira Sunday Budget, arrested for selling papers on Sunday, contrary to the act of assembly of 1794, commonly known as the Blue Laws.

Niland gained the enmity of the doctor by printing a sensational account of the affair in which he made Doctor Haggerty the principal character. He also posted on the outside of the Budget office last Saturday announcing in bold letters that the next issue of the Budget would contain an account of Dr. Haggerty's hearing. This caught the doctor's eye and he had Niland arrested and fined $5 for obstructing the sidewalk with newspapers.

Kerl was held in $500 bail by Alberman Fuller, P. J. Conway becoming his bondsmen. Niland, upon the advice of his attorney, John B. Collins, paid the fine of $1 and $2 costs.

The doctor also wanted to swear out warrants for the arrest of a score or more of newboys who sell the Budget, but after a consultation with the alderman he decided not to do so. However, he caused a warrant to be issued for Joseph Davis, the Taylor agent of the Budget.

Doctor Haggerty announces that he will give the Budget people no rest. He says he will arrest any man or boy caught selling the Elmira Budget on Sunday, and will prevent entirely the sale of that paper in this city on the Sabbath.

AN ANCIENT CHILD.

Being Supported by the Poor District at Elwyn Home.

The Elwyn Home, situated in Chester county, is an institution where feeble minded children are given a course of training fitting their peculiar condition. The Scranton poor district, since its incorporation, has been in the habit of sending from time to time feeble minded children to this institution and paying a large sum for their maintenance and care. At present eight are being cared for there at the expense of this district.

Recently, several applications have been made to the poor board to take care of feeble minded children, one of whom having come up at the last meeting of the board. This brought the Elwyn Home to the attention of the board and a committee, consisting of John Gibbons and Daniel Williams and Superintendent Besmer, was appointed to consider and report on the matter.

This committee has discovered that one of the children whom Scranton is supporting at Elwyn is 24 years of age, and two others are nearly out of their teens. The committee considers this a waste of money, as these "children" have received all the benefits that can be derived from the treatment at Elwyn, which is only for children, and consequently they will recommend that the district refuse to support them any longer unless their friends are satisfied to place them in the Hillside Home. The committee will go to Elwyn next week to take the children away and make room for the feeble minded children who have of late years become a charge on the district.

OVER AT LAKE ARIEL.

There the Lederkrantz Celebration Was Brought to a Close.

The celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Scranton Lederkrantz closed yesterday with an excursion to Lake Ariel, which was attended by several thousand persons.

It was one of the happiest and jolliest crowds that has visited that resort this summer. The best of good feeling and enjoyment reigned during the day and even the children which descended late in the afternoon, was unable to dampen the spirits of the excursionists. During the day the members of the singing societies from New York, Honesdale and this city, made the woods resound with song.

Among the well known Scrantonians who were present to share in the enjoyment of the day were: Ex-Sheriff Charles Robinson, ex-Mayor John H. Fellows, District Attorney John P. Kelly, George Okell, W. K. Peck, Prothonotary C. E. Pryor, P. J. Ruane, E. H. House, Charles Heuser, Deputy Internal Revenue Collector William Craig, William Franz, County Detective Shea, F. L. Wormser and County Commissioner John Demuth.

Conway House, 133 and 134 Penn Ave., is where you will always find good service and courteous treatment, the table is always supplied with the best in the market. Transient and local trade solicited.

REPAIRING and custom work promptly done at the Boston Shoe Store.

TWO UGLY WOUNDS INFLICTED

One Runs from Boyd's Mouth to the Back of His Neck—The Other Laid Open His Left Arm—Jackson's Version of the Cause of the Trouble, as Given to a Tribune Reporter After His Arrest.

Special Officer Jacob Boyd of Green Ridge, had an encounter with James Jackson, colored, at the Driving park last evening. Jackson was armed with a razor and with one sweep of the weapon he struck Jackson running from Boyd's mouth to the back of his neck. An ugly gash was also inflicted on Boyd's left arm. Dr. Van Kleet was called to attend the injured man whose wounds are painful but not dangerous. Boyd will be permanently disfigured, however.

Jackson was placed under arrest by Officer Rees G. Jones and placed in the Providence station house.

He was seen there soon after his arrest by a TRIBUNE reporter and gave his version of the affair. His employer, George Smith, of the Driving park, had given him special orders to keep Boyd out of the stable, he said. When Boyd attempted to force an entrance into the stable last night Jackson remonstrated with him, but Boyd told him to proceed by the shortest route to the inner regions and accompanied him in the mouth with a whisky bottle. Jackson had his razor with him and used it.

Major and Mrs. Everett Warren Enjoy A Most Pleasant Trip.

Major and Mrs. Everett Warren are home from their European trip. They arrived in this city yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, after having been absent two months, having visited the most picturesque and historical points in Great Britain, France and Switzerland.

They were passengers going abroad on the New York, which it will be remembered met with an accident, which caused a long delay. The return was made on the Spree. Major Warren said they had had a most enjoyable time. The great London, where they witnessed the opening of the Round Tower bridge by the Royal party, Paris, where they spent a week during the Carnot excitement and the Alps, were July snow falling was indeluged in, particularly impressed them. John Jerny, Attorney at Law, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson were accidentally met with in London.

"I had many pleasant experiences on the trip" said the major, "but nothing was more enjoyable than the sight of the old stars and stripes off Fire Island."
